Which respective Sums of Money, to be paid in Lieu of Tithes within the said respective Parishes, and assessed as herein after is directed, shall be, and continue to be esteemed, deemed, and taken, to all Intents and Purposes, to be the respective, certain, annual Maintenance (over and above Glebes and Perquisites, Gifts and Bequests to the respective Parson, Vicar, and Curate of any Parish for the Time being, or to his or their respective Successors, or to other Persons for his or their Use) of the said respective Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, who shall be legally instituted, inducted, and admitted into the respective Parishes aforesaid.

N. B. For a more particular Account of the several Wards, the Reader is referred to Stowe's Survey of London; And for what relates to the several Parishes, to Newcourt's Repertorium.

OF THE COURT of LORD-MAYOR and ALDERMEN,

AT THE
Time of the REVOLUTION in 1688.

SIR JOHN CHAPMAN, LORD-MAYOR elected for Tower Ward the 12th of February, 1679.

Sir Thomas Alleyn, elected for Cheap
the 15th of February, 1652; removed first to Aldgate Ward, and from thence to Bridge Without, the 27th of November, 1679.

Sir John Lawrence, elected for Queen-hith the 4th of February, 1657.

Sir William Hooker, elected for Wal-brook the 24th of June, 1664; removed to Cornhill the 16th of June, 1668.

Sir Robert Clayton, elected for Cord-wainer the 16th of June, 1670; removed to Cheap the 20th of June, 1676.

Sir Patience Ward, elected for Farringdon Within the 18th of October, 1670.

Sir John Moore, elected for Walbrook the 26th of September, 1671.

Sir William Pritchard, elected for Broadstreet the 27th of June, 1672.

Sir Henry Tulse, elected for Bread-street the 29th of July, 1673.

Sir James Smith, elected for Portsoken the 1st of September, 1674.

Sir Robert Geffery, elected for Cordwainer the 22d of June, 1676.

Sir Simon Lewis, elected for Bassishaw the 29th of April, 1680.

Sir Thomas Pilkington, elected for Farringdon Without the 14th of December, 1680; in the Year 1682 the Duke of York obtained a Verdict against him, and 100,000*l.* Damages, on the Statute De Scandalis Magistratum, which occasioned his becoming a Prisoner in the King's-Bench; upon the 28th of November, 1682, at his own Request, the Court of Aldermen discharged him, and Sir Dudley North was chosen in his room; but upon the 26th of February, 1688, he was elected for Vintry, and took his Place according to the Time of his first Election.

Sir Jonathan Raymond, elected for Bishopsgate the 2d of September, 1681.

Sir Dudley North, elected for Farringdon Without the 24th of December, 1682.

Sir

Sir Peter Daniel, elected for Bridge the 20th of December, 1682.

Sir Peter Rich, elected for Aldersgate the 11th of September, 1683.

Sir Thomas Stampe, elected for Cripplegate the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir Samuel Dashwood, elected for Aldersgate the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir Benjamin Thorowgood, elected for Lime-street the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir Thomas Kensley, elected for Dowgate the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir William Ashhurst, elected for Billingsgate the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir Christopher Lethieullier, elected for Coleman-street the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir John Fleet, elected for Langborn the 9th of October, 1688.

Sir William * Gostlyn, elected for Castlebaynard the 18th of October, 1688.

Sir Thomas Lane, elected for Candlewick the 19th of October, 1688.

* Sir William Turner, elected for Farringdon Within the 23d of October, 1660, and on the 27th of November following was discharged, on paying a Fine; afterwards he was elected for Candlewick, and on the 13th of June, 1668, removed from Candlewick to Castlebaynard; in 1688 he voluntarily resigned, and Sir William Gostlyn was elected in his room; but as Sir William Turner was an Alderman at the Time of the Judgment on the Quo Warranto, upon passing the Act of Parliament for reversing that Judgment, Sir William Gostlyn's Election became void, and Sir William Turner was again sworn Alderman of Castlebaynard, notwithstanding his former Resignation.
